ADMINISTRATOR OF THE GOVERNMENT

Up to May 7, 1901. it was provided by Royal Letters Patent that the "powers granted His Excellency may in the case of his death, incapacity or absence, be given to the Lieutenant-Governor for the time being of Canada, or in his absence to such person as Her Majesty might, by warrant, appoint to be Administrator, or in the absence of such Lieutenant-Governor or Administrator to the Senior Military Officer for the time being in command of Her Majesty's regular Forces in the Dominion".

Upon the date mentioned a dormant Comm. passed under the Royal Sign Manual and Signet appointing the Chief Justice for the time being of the Supreme Court of Canada, or in the case of the death, incapacity, removal or absence from Canada of the Chief Justice, the Senior Judge of the Supreme Court of Canada, to be Administrator of the Government of the Dominion in the event of the death, incapacity, removal or absence of the Governor-General.

The Royal Letters Patent of June 15, 1905, which provided for the change in the designation of His Excellency's office from that of "Governor-General in and over the Dominion of Canada" to that of "Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Dominion of Canada", contained the same provision as to the Administrator as the dormant Commission, and that instrument, being thus rendered superfluous, was withdrawn and cancelled.

The Administrator is vested with all the powers and authorities granted to the Governor-General by letters patent or otherwise. (See Supreme Court of Canada.)

THE DOMINION OF CANADA

The territories which now constitute the Dominion of Canada came under the British flag at various times, some by settlement and others by conquest or cession. Nova Scotia (Acadia) was discovered by the Cabots, in the service of King Henry VII, in 1497. The part of Canada, now forming the Province of Quebec was discovered by Jacques Cartier, in the service of King Francis I of France, in 1534. The colony of Halifax was founded in 1749. By the treaty of Utrecht (1713) Acadia and the Hudson Bay Territory (Hudson Bay was discovered by Henry Hudson in 1610) were acknowledged to be British Territory. The Hudson Bay company's charter, conferring right of government over the territory now known as the Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and the North-West Territories, was granted in 1670. The old French Colony of Canada was surrendered by the capitulation of Montreal, signed September 8, 1760 and along with the Prince Edward Island, and part of the present Province of New Brunswick, formally ceded to Great Britain by France under the Treaty of Paris, signed Feb. 10, 1763.

Vancouver Island was acknowledged to be British by the Oregon Boundary Treaty of 1846, and British Columbia was occupied in 1858.

As originally constituted, the Dominion of Canada was composed of the provinces of Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick. They were united under the provisions of an Act of the Imperial Parliament (30 Victoria, Chapter III) passed in 1867, and commonly cited as "The British North America Act, 1867," although its full official designation originally was: — "An Act for the Union of Canada, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and the government thereof, and for the purposes connected therewith." This Act received the Royal assent March 29th, 1867, and came into effect by virtue of Royal Proclamation, July 1st, 1867. This Act expressly provides that the Constitution of the Dominion shall be "similar in principle to that of the United Kingdom" (1st clause), so that the executive authority shall be vested in the Sovereign of Great Britain and Ireland, and carried on in her name by a Governor-General and Council "to aid and advise in the government of Canada, to be styled the Queen's Privy Council for Canada." (Clauses 9, 10 and 11). Provision was made in the Act for the Admission of British Columbia, Prince Edward Island, The North-West Territories, and Newfoundland into the Dominion (Clause 146). Newfoundland entered Confederation, March 31, 1949. In 1869 the extreme region known under the various designations of "Rupert's Land," "the Hudson Bay Territory," and "the North-West Territory," was added to the Dominion by purchase from the Hudson Bay Company. The Province of Manitoba was set apart out of a portion of it (32-33 Victoria, Chap. 3), and admitted into the Confederation, July 15, 1870.

July 20, 1871, the Province of British Columbia, and July 1, 1873, the Provinces of Prince Edward Island, respectively entered the confederation.

June 25, 1886, the Royal Assent was given to "An Act respecting the representation in the Parliament of Canada of Territories which for the time being form part of the Dominion of Canada, but are not included in any Province," commonly cited as "The British North America Act, 1886," (49-50 Victoria, Chapter XXXV).

This Act provides that the Parliament of Canada may, from time to time, make provisions for the representation in the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, or in either of them, of any Territories which, for the time being, form part of the Dominion of Canada but are not included in any Province thereof.

The Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan were formed from the provisional districts of Alberta, Athabaska, Assiniboia and Saskatchewan (4-5 Edward VII, Chap. 3 and 42), and were admitted to the Union as Provinces on September 1st, 1905.

During the first session of the 12th Parliament a bill was passed extending the areas of Manitoba, Ontario, and Quebec north-ward by adding to those provinces portions of North-West Territory.

Population:—Census of 1911, 7,207,000; Census of 1921, 8,788,000; Census of 1931, 10,376,000; Census of 1941, 11,507,000; Census of 1951, 13,893, 208; Census of 1956, 16,081,000; Census June 1961, 18,238,000; estimated census, July 1962, 18,600,000.

THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA

The present Canadian system of government which was established under the British North America Act of 1867, is a Federal Union, the first of its kind in the British Empire. It comprises a general or central government controlling matters essential to the development, the permanency and the unity of the Dominion as a whole, and also a number of provincial governments having the control and management of certain clearly defined local matters naturally and conveniently falling within their jurisdiction. These several governments are administered in strict accordance with the principles of British parliamentary government.

The executive Power of the Government of the Dominion of Canada, as also the chief command of the military and naval forces, is vested in the Queen, represented by the Governor-General, appointed by Her Majesty the Queen and advised by a Cabinet chosen from members of the Queen's Privy Council for Canada, and consisting of ministers holding departmental offices, besides, often, one or more ministers without portfolios. The government holds office as long as it has the confidence of the popular branch of Parliament.

According to the B. N. A. Act, 1867, Sec. 55, where a Bill passed by the Houses of Parliament is presented to the Governor-General for the Queen's assent, he shall declare, according to his discretion, but subject to the provisions of the mentioned Act and to Her Majesty's instruction, either that he assents thereto in the Queen's name, or that he withholds the Queen's assent, or that he reserves the Bill for the signification of the Queen's pleasure.

Disallowance of Bill—The present constitutional position is that the power of disallowance can no longer be exercised in relation to Dominion Legislation.

As to the reservation of bills, said reservation could take place only upon the advice of Her Majesty's Government in the Dominion of Canada as it would not be in accordance with constitutional practice for advice to be tendered to Her Majesty by Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom against the views of the Government of the Dominion concerned.

THE SENATE OF CANADA

According to the British America North Act, 1867, the Senate as originally constituted was to consist of 72 members; 24 for the Province of Ontario, 24 for Quebec and 24 for the Maritime Provinces (Nova Scotia and New Brunswick). Qualifications were laid down as follows: Must be a British Subject; must be thirty years of age; must be possessed of real property, free of all incumbrances, to the value of $4,000; must be a resident of the province for which he is appointed. Senators are appointed by the Governor-General and subject to certain conditions, hold their appointments for life. A Senator may by writing resign his seat. His place becomes vacant (1) if for two consceutive sessions of Parliament he fails to attend; (2) if he becomes a subject or citizen of a foreign power; (3) if he is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent or applies for the benefit of any law relating to insolvent debtors, or becomes a public defaulter; (4) if he is attained of treason or convicted of felony or of any infamous crime; (5) if he ceases to qualify in respect of property. The Governor General in Council appoints the Speaker of the Senate, and the Clerk and the Gentleman usher of the Black Rod. The debates and proceedings of the Senate are governed by Rules and Orders modelled to a considerable extent after those of the House of Lords and differing very considerably from those of the House of Commons. Thus honourable gentlemen, rising to speak ,address themselves to the "Honourable Senators", composing the House, and not to "Mr. Speaker," as in the House of Commons.

Each of the Senators from Quebec is appointed to represent one of 24 divisions corresponding with former electoral divisions of the old Province of Lower Canada. Senators for other provinces are not appointed for any designated divisions, but the practice of assuming distinctive territorial designations prevails. A popular practice of Senators who have formerly sat in the House of Commons is to adopt as their designations the titles of their former constituencies. Several are content to be designated as "from" the city or town in which they reside. Senators must continue to reside in the province from which they are appointed.

The first increase in the membership of the Senate took place in 1871, when Manitoba and British Columbia, upon entering the Confederation. were awarded two and three seats respectively. In 1873 Prince Edward Island, upon entering Confederation, was given four members, the representation of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick being reduced by two senators each. In 1882 Manitoba was given an additional member and in 1892 another. In 1888 the North-West Territories were given two senators. In 1904, in virtue of the Act 3 Edward VII, Chapter 42, the representation of the North-West Territories was increased to four. Upon creation of the Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan in 1905, each was allotted 4 seats in the Senate, or eight seats between them.

The Senate was then constituted of 87 members are follows: — Ontario, 24; Quebec, 24; Nova Scotia, 10; New Brunswick, 10; Prince Edward Island, 4; British Columbia, 3; Manitoba, 4; Saskatchewan, 4; Alberta, 4.

In 1915 the British North America Act was amended increasing the number of Senators from 72 to 96. This measure provided that the detail of representation should be as follows:— Ontario, by 24 senators; Quebec, by 24 senators; the Maritime Provinces and Prince Edward Island, by 24 senators, 10 thereof representing Nova Scotia, 10 thereof representing New Brunswick and 4 thereof representing Prince Edward Island; the western provinces by 24 senators; 6 thereof representing Manitoba, 6 thereof representing British Columbia; 6 thereof representing Saskatchewan and 6 Alberta.

Through the addition of the Province of Newfoundland now consists of 102 members. — By provinces, representation is as follows Nfld., 6; P.E.I., 4; N.S., 10; N.B., 10; Que., 24; Ont., 24; Man., 6; Sask., 6; Alta., 6; B.C., 6. Total 102.

The eligibility of women for appt. to the Senate of Canada was declared by the judicial Committee of the Privy Council in 1929, and in Feb. 1930, for the first time in the History of Canada a womon was appointed a Member of the Senate.

INDEMNITY. — The Speaker of the Senate is paid a salary of $9,000 per annum. (1953-54, c. 10, s. 1).

For the sessions of each Parliament there shall be paid to every member of the Senate and House of Commons a sessional allowance at the rate of $8,000 per annum. (1953-54, c. 10, s. 2).

An annual expense allowance is payable at the rate of two thousand dollars per annum to each member of the Senate and House of Commons, subject to deductions for non attendance. (R.S. 1952, c. 249, s. 44).

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS OF CANADA

The House of Commons of Canada is elected by the people for five years, unless sooner dissolved by the Governor General. Members require no property qualifications, but they must be of the age of 21, and British subjects, not disqualified by law. The Speaker is chosen by the House at the opening sitting of the first session of each parliament.

The members are elected by constituencies and voting is by ballot.

The number of members of the House of Commons is regulated by the following clauses of the British North America Act, 1867, as amended in 1952: —

51.—(1) The number of members of the House of Commons shall be two hundred and fifty-five and the representation of the provinces therein shall forthwith upon the coming into force of this section and thereafter on the completion of each decennial census be readjusted by such authority, in such manner, and from such time as the Parliament of Canada from time to time provides, subject and according to the following rules :—

1. There shall be assigned to each of the provinces a number of members computed by dividing the total population of the provinces by two hundred and sixty-one and by dividing the population of each province by the quotient so obtained, diregarding, except as hereinafter in this section provided, the remainder, if any, after the said process of division.

2. If the total number of members assigned to all the provinces pursuant to rule one is less than two hundred and sixty-one, additional members shall be assigned to the provinces (one to a province) having remainders in the computation under rule one commencing with the province having the largest remainder and continuing with the other provinces in the order of the magnitude of their respective remainders until the total number of members assigned is two hundred and sixty-one.

3. Notwithstanding anything in this section, if upon completion of a computation under rules one and two, the number of members to be assigned to a province is less than the number of senators representing the said province, rules one and two shall cease to apply in respect of the said province, and there shall be assigned to the said province a number of members equal to the said number of senators.

4. In the event that rules one and two cease to apply in respect of a province then, for the purpose of computing the number of members to be assigned to the provinces in respect of which rules one and two continue to apply, the total population of the provinces shall be reduced by the number of the population of the province in respect of which rules one and two have ceased to apply and the number two hundred and sixty-one shall be reduced by the number of members assigned to such province pursuant to rule three.

5. On any such readjustment the number of members for any province shall not be reduced by more than fifteen per cent below the representation to which such province was entitled under rules one to four of this subsection at the last preceding readjustment of the representation of that province, and there shall be no reduction in the representation of any province as a result of which that province would have a smaller number of members than any other province that according to the results of the then last decennial census did not have a larger population; but for the purposes of any subsequent readjustment of representation under this section any increase in the number of members of the House of Commons resulting from the application of this rule shall not be included in the divisor mentioned in rules one to four of this sub-section.

6. Such readjustment shall not take effect until the termination of the then existing Parliament.

(2) The Yukon Territory as constituted by chapter forty one of the statutes of Canada, 1901, shall be entitled to one member, and such other part of Canada not comprised within a province as may from time to time be defined by the Parliament of Canada shall be entitled to one member. (23)

51A. Notwithstanding anything in this Act a province shall always be entitled to a number of members in the House of Commons not less than the number of senators representing such province. (24)

In the meantime, however, under the terms of a bill assented to on Feb. 18, 1949 (an Act to approve the Terms of Union of Newfoundland with Canada) provision was made for the Province of Newfoundland to be represented by seven members in the H. of C. This brought the number of members of the 21st Parliament, elected June 27, 1949, to 262 members.

2. This Act may be cited as the British North America Act, 1952, and the British North America Acts, 1867 to 1951, and this Act may be cited together as the British North America Acts, 1867 to 1952.

52. The Number of members of the House of Commons may be from time to time increased by the Parliament of Canada, provided the proportionate Representation of the Provinces prescribed by this Act is not thereby disturbed.

At Confederation (1867) the House of Commons consisted of 181 members of which Ontario returned 82 Quebec 65, Nova Scotia, 19; and New Brunswick, 15. During the fourth session of the 1st Parliament the representation was increased to 191, Manitoba (4 members) and British Columbia (6 members) having entered Confederation.

The representation in the 2nd Parliament (July 8, 1872, to Jan. 2, 1874), under the Redistribution Act of 1872, was 200 up to the last sessions, when there was an increase of 6 members owing to the admission of Prince Edward Island to Confederation. Ontario had 88 members; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 21; New Brunswick, 16; Manitoba, 4; British Columbia, 6.

In the 3rd Parliament (Jan. 2, 1874, to August 17, 1878), and in the 4th Parliament (Aug. 17, 1878, to May 18, 1882) the representation remained as at the dissolution of the 2nd Parliament, viz:—Ontario, 88; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 21; New Brunswick, 16; Manitoba, 4; British Columbia, 6; Prince Edward Island, 6. Total 206.

The representation in the 5th Parliament (Feb. 8, 1883, to Jan. 15, 1887) under the Representation Act of 1887, was increased to 211, the Ontario representation being increased from 88 to 92 and that of Manitoba from 4 to 5.

In the 6th Parliament (Jan. 15, 1887, to Feb. 3, 1891), the representation remained unchanged, except that in 1887 the North-West Territories were granted representation with 4 members, thus making a total representation of 215.

During the 7th Parliament (Feb. 3, 1891, to April 24, 1896) there was no change in the representation.

In the 8th Parliament (April 24, 1896, to Oct. 9, 1900), under the Representation Act of 1892-3, the representation was as follows:—Ontario, 92; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 20; New Brunswick, 14; Manitoba, 7; British Columbia, 6; Prince Edward Island, 5; North-West Territories, 4. Total, 213.

During the 9th Parliament (Oct. 9, 1900, to Sept. 29, 1904), there was but one change in the representation, a seat being added for the Yukon Territory (Chap. 37, 1902). This made 214 members, distributed as follows :—Ontario, 86; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 18; New Brunswick, 13; Manitoba, 10; North-West Territories, 10; British Columbia, 7; Prince Edward Island, 4; Yukon Territory, 1.

The House remained so constituted until the dissolution of the 10th Parliament, September 17, 1908.

During the first session of the Tenth Parliament of Canada (1905) provision was made for the creation of the new province of Saskatchewan and Alberta out of part of the North-West Territories, and provision was made for the taking of a census of population in the two new provinces, as also in Manitoba, in the middle year of each decade commencing with 1906. The results of the first quinquennial census made necessary, according to the Saskatchewan and Alberta Acts, a readjustment of the representation of Saskatchewan and Alberta in the House of Commons, and at the session of 1906-07 an amendment was passed to the Representation Act (Chapter 5 of the Revised Statutes, 1906) providing that the House of Commons shall consist of two hundred and twenty-one (221) members, as follows: Ontario, 86; Quebec, 65; Saskatchewan, 10, (a gain of 4); British Columbia, 7; Alberta, 7, (a gain of 3); Prince Edward Island, 4; Yukon Territory, 1.

By a special clause embodied in this Act, it only took effect upon the dissolution of the 10th Parliament.

During the session of 1914 (3rd session 12th Parlt.) a Redistribution Bill was passed, providing for an increase in the number of members of the House of Commons to 235, divided among the provinces as follows:—Ontario, 82; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 16; New Brunswick, 11; Manitoba, 15; British Columbia, 13; Prince Edward Island, 4; Saskatchewan, 16; Alberta, 12; Yukon, 1. Total 235. The new Act came into effect with the dissolution of the 12th Parliament.

During the session of 1923 (2nd of the 14th Parl.) the Government introduced a Redistribution Bill based upon the census of 1921. It was not passed before prorogation and was accordingly re-introduced at the 1924 session and with certain amendments adopted. Under its provisions the Maritime Provinces lose two members; both in Nova Scotia; the Prairie Provinces gain eleven—four going to Alberta, five to Saskatchewan and two to Manitoba. British Columbia gains one The other provinces remain as at present, as does the representation of Yukon Territory. The net increase in representation for the whole Dominion is, therefore, ten.

The Representation Act, 1933, based on the census of 1931 was passed at the session of 1933 (4th of the 17th Parl.). It reduced the membership of Nova Scotia to 12 and New Brunswick to 10; increasing Alberta to 17, and British Columbia to 16, other Provinces remaining the same. However in 1949, with the Union of Newfoundland, the representation was increased to 262 members.

The Representation Act 1952, based on the Census of 1951 was passed at the Session of 1952 (6th of the 21st Parliament). It reduced Nova Scotia to 12 (13), Manitoba to 14 (16); Saskatchewan to 17 (20); increasing Ontario, 85 (83); Quebec, 75 (73); British Columbia, 22 (18); Yukon 1; Mackenzie River (N.W.T.) 1 (1). Other Provinces remained the same.

In 1887, when the old Northwest Territories were first given representation in the House of Commons, four electoral divisions were created :

(1)—Assiniboia East, adjoining Province of Manitoba; (2) Assiniboia West, next ; (3) Alberta, extending to the boundary of British Columbia, and (4) Saskatchewan, in the north. Under the Act of 1903, the two Assiniboias and Saskatchewan were given six seats, namely :

Assiniboia East, Assiniboia West, Humboldt, Mackenzie, Qu'Appelle, Saskatchewan. These old divisions pratically compose the present province of Saskatchewan, which according to the Act of 1906-07 returns 10 members to the House of Commons, the constituencies being: Assiniboia, Battleford, Humboldt, Mackenzie, Moose Jaw, Prince Albert, Qu'Appelle, Regina, Salcoats and Saskatoon.

Owing to the operation of the Redistribution Act, the constituencies of Lisgar and Selkirk changed names after 1891; that is the constituency called Lisgar up to and including 1891 has since been called Selkirk, and vice versa. So in the above table, the figures for the elections up to and including 1891 are for what to that date was known as the constituency of Selkirk, but which territorially is identical, or practically so, with the present constituency of Lisgar.

(1)—The first elections in Marquette after the admission of Manitoba into Confederation was held March 2, 1871. The return of the returning officer showed that each of the two candidates had received the same number of votes. The return officer had not, as now, the right to give his casting vote. In due course the matter came before the H. of C. and was referred to the Commission of Privileges and Electors, who reported that the return officer should (under the old system of double returns) have declared both candidates elected. Under an order of the House (April 25), the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery attended and on motion of the Hon. Mr. Cameron, of Peel, a resolution was passed, instructing the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery to amend the return so as to declare both candidates elected. This was done, and Dr. Lynch, who was present in Ottawa, forthwith suscribed to the oath and took his seat. Then Hon. Mr. Cameron drew attention to the rule which provised that a member must withdraw while the matter of his election was before the House, whereupon Dr. Lynch withdrew. May 13, McKay, having arrived in Ottawa, presented himself and took the oath and his seat. Under similar conditions as Dr. Lynch he withdrew. A delay of six weeks was allowed the Elec. Comm. to enquire into the matter. Before the House finally disposed of the matter Parliament was dissolved. (See Journals of the House.)

(2)—Mr. Cunningham died while the protest against his return was before the courts.

THE QUEBEC LEGISLATURE

In accordance with the B.N.A. Act, 1867 (clause 71 and following) the Legislature for the Province of Quebec consists of the Lieutenant-Governor and of two Houses, styled the Legislative Council of Quebec and the Legislative Assembly of Quebec.

The Legislative Councillors are "appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for life, unless the Legislature of Quebec otherwise provides." The qualifications of the Legislative Councillors are the same as for members of the Senate of Canada and the place of a Legislature Councillor becomes vacant in the cases, "mutatis mutandis", in which the place of Senator becomes vacant.

The Legislative Assembly is composed of members elected by the various electoral divisions into which the province is divided.

The work and authority of the two Houses are divided as in the House of the Dominion Parliament.

QUEBEC LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

The Legislative Council consists of 24 members life appointed by the Crown (the Provincial Govt. of the day). The speaker is also appointed by the Crown, and broadly, the Council resembles the Canadian Senate in its composition, functions and procedure. "The official table of Titles to be used in Canada" (clause 10) provides that Legislative Councillors shall not be entitled to the title of "Honourable".

The sessional indemnity of the Legislative Councillor is $6,700.00 and $3,300.00 for travelling and office expenses and the Speaker shall receive $7,000 plus an allowance of $2,000 for entertainment expenses plus an additional lodging allowance of $1,000, without prejudice to his sessional indemnity.

SEAT OF GOVERNMENT — OTTAWA

The Northwest Territories comprise all that portion of Canada lying to the north of the Sixtieth Parallel of north latitude and east of the Yukon Territory, with the exception of a part of Quebec and a small portion of Newfoundland which are north of that parallel, but including the islands of Hudson Bay and James Bay. The Districts of Keewatin and Franklin are administered from Ottawa, while the seat of administration of the Mackenzie District is at Fort Smith in the Northwest Territories.

The Northwest Territories Act of 1905 was revised and consolidated in 1952 and came into force as Chapter 331, Revised Statutes of Canada, 1952, on the first day of April, 1955. It provides for the Government of the Territories by a Commissioner and a Territorial Council. The Commissioner, who is the Deputy Minister of Northern Affairs and National Resources, acts under instructions from time to time from the Governor-in-Council, or the Minister of Northern Affairs and National Resources. The Deputy Commissioner is one of the senior officials of the Department. The Council consists of nine members, four of whom are elected from the four electoral districts in the District of Mackenzie, and five appointed by the Governor-in-Council. The legislative powers of the Commissioner-in-Council are somewhat analogous to those of a provincial lieutenant-governor and legislature. Responsibility for supervising the administration of the Territories rests with the Northern Administration Branch of the Department of Northern Affairs and National Resources.

The Northwest Territories is represented in the House of Commons by one Member, from the Electoral District of the Northwest Territories.

Sec. 10 and 1958 C.9. and 1960 C.24. It provides for the Government of the Territory by a Commissioner and Territorial Council. The Commissioner is appointed by the Governor-in-Council and administers the Government of the Territory under instructions from the Governor-in-Council or the Minister of Northern Affairs and National Resources. The Council of the Yukon Territory is wholly elected and consists of seven members from seven constituencies in the Territory who are elected for a three-year term of office. The legislative powers of the Commissioner in Council are somewhat analogous to the powers of a provincial Lieutenant-Governor and the legislature. The Yukon has its own territorial civil service which carries out the administrative function. The Northern Administration Branch of the Department of Northern Affairs and National Resources assists by examining and reporting on all Yukon legislation and policies, and acts in a advisory capacity on Yukon territorial matters generally. This Department also administers the natural resources other than game.

The Yukon Territory is represented in the House of Commons by one Member, from the Electoral District of Yukon.

SUPREME COURT OF CANADA

The Supreme Court of Canada (as also the Exchequer Court) was constituted in 1875 under "The Supreme and Exchequer Court Act" (38 Vic., Chap. 11). It is now governed by the Supreme Court Act, R.S.C. 1952, c. 259, as amended.

The Supreme Court of Canada has jurisdiction as a general court of appeal in both civil and criminal cases throughout Canada. It is also a Court of Appeal for controverted election cases, appeals from the Exchequer Court, from the Board of Railway Commissioners, as provided in the Railway Act, and under the Bankruptcy and Winding-up Acts. It also has jurisdiction in controversies between the provinces and Canada. The Governor in Council may refer important questions of law or fact to the Supreme Court for an opinion upon any matter touching the constitutionality of legislation or any other matter which the Governor in Council sees fit to submit. The Supreme Court may also examine and report upon any private bill or petition for a private bill presented to the Senate or House of Commons under any rules or orders made by the Senate or House of Commons. The judgment of the Court is, in all cases, final and conclusive except in civil cases which commenced before December 23, 1949, when appeals to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council were abolished.

The Supreme Court sits in Ottawa, where the judges are required to reside. Three sessions are held in each year, beginning on the fourth Tuesday in January, the fourth Tuesday in April and the first Tuesday in October.

The Supreme Court as originally constituted on 8th April 1875 consisted of a Chief Justice (whose title is Chief Justice of Canada) and five puisne Judges. The number of puisne judges was increased in 1927 to six and in 1949 to eight, so that the Court now consists of the Chief Justice and eight puisne judges. The judges are appointed by the Governor-in-Council by letters patent under the Great Seal of Canada and they automatically cease to hold office on attaining the age of seventy-five years.

Articles VII and VIII of the letters patent issued under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom (effective 1st October 1947), constituting the office of Governor General and Commander-in-Chief in and over Canada, read as follows: —

VII. And Whereas by The British North America Acts, 1867 to 1946, it is amongst other things enacted that it shall be lawful for Us, if We think fit, to authorize Our Governor General to appoint any person or persons, jointly or severally, to be his Deputy or Deputies within any part or parts of Canada, and in that capacity to exercise, during the pleasure of Our Governor General, such of the powers, authorities, and functions of Our Governor General as he may deem it necessary or expedient to assign to such Deputy or Deputies, subject to any limitations or directions from time to time expressed or given by Us: Now We do hereby authorize and empower Our Governor General, subject to such limitations and directions, to appoint any person or persons, jointly or severally, to be his Deputy or Deputies within any part or parts of Canada, and in that capacity to exercise, during his pleasure, such of his powers, functions, and authorities, as he may deem it necessary or expedient to assign to him or them: Provided always, that the appointment of such a Deputy or Deputies shall not affect the exercise of any such power, authority or function by Our Governor General in person.

VIII. And We do hereby declare Our pleasure to be that, in the event of the death, incapacity, removal, or absence of Our Governor General out of Canada, all and every the powers and authorities herein granted to him shall, until Our further pleasure is signified therein, be vested in Our Chief Justice for the time being of Canada, (hereinafter called Our Chief Justice) or, in the case of the death, incapacity, removal or absence out of Canada of Our Chief Justice, then in the Senior Judge for the time being of the Supreme Court of Canada, then residing in Canada and not being under incapacity; such Chief Justice or Senior Judge of the Supreme Court of Canada, while the said powers and authorities are vested in him, to be known as Our Administrator.

Provided always, that the said Senior Judge shall act in the administration of the Government only if and when Our Chief Justice shall not be present within Canada and capable of administering the Government.

Provided further that no such powers or authorities shall vest in such Chief Justice, or other judge of the Supreme Court of Canada, until he shall have taken the Oaths appointed to be taken by Our Governor General.

Provided further that whenever and so often as Our Governor General shall be temporarily absent from Canada, with Our permission, for a period not exceeding one month, then and in every such case Our Governor General may continue to exercise all and every the powers vested in him as fully as if he were residing within Canada, including the power to appoint a Deputy or Deputies as provided in the Eighth Clause of these Our Letters Patent.

THE SUPREME COURT

Chief Justice of Canada:

Puisne Judges

Hon. Roland A. Ritchie, May 5, 1959.

Hon. Emmett M. Hall, Nov., 1962.

Registrar: Kenneth James Matheson, Q.C.

The right of the Administrator to be styled "His Excellency" was asserted by Sir H. Elzear Taschereau, formerly Chief Justice, while acting as Administrator in the interval between the departure of the Earl of Minto and the arrival of His Excellency Earl Grey, and he was informed by the Secretary of State for the Colonies, in reply to an inquiry, that "the Administrator was rightly styled "His Excellency". By paragraph vii of the Letters Patent, authorized by the British North America Acts, the Governor General may appoint a Deputy. During the absence of the Governor General from Ottawa but within Canada the Chief Justice is usually appointed Deputy Governor General.

By Royal Letters Patent dated September 8th, 1947, and effective October 1st, 1947, the office of Governor General and Commander-in-Chief in and over Canada was constituted. By paragraph viii thereof, in the event of the death, incapacity, removal or absence of the Governor General out of Canada, all his powers and authorities are vested in the Chief Justice of Canada.

OFFICIAL PRECEDENCE

The establishment and the maintenance of tables or scales of official precedence result from the fact that in all nations and communities there are individuals, who, because they have entrusted to them by the nation the performance of certain responsible and honorable official or communal functions, are by common accord, regarded, either for the time being, or permanently, as occupying positions of various degrees of eminence in the social fabric.

In the old patriarchal communities social pre-eminence was naturally accorded to the heads of the tribal families, and precedence throughout the tribes was generally regulated by the seniority of the sons of the patriarchs and the individuals of their families. Of course there were exceptions to this rule, due to the personal ambitions and achievements of individuals.

Since nations have been evolved from the old tribal organizations, an official class of citizens has been developed, comprising those who, besides occupying the usual position of members of the state, have entrusted to them the execution of what have been described as the life functions of the nation; that is such functions as are peculiar to the civic organization in contra-distinction to the general functions exercised and actions performed by individual citizens as independent units. Official service calls in a special degree for a sense of duty to the public trust, and in many cases for a spirit of sacrifice and, if needs be, self effacement. In recognition of these conditions, and often for very practical state reasons, special privileges are granted to certain of the more responsible officials within the spheres appointed for them. So public service rank in social etiquette—the corner stone of all official tables of social precedence.

"Precedence" has been defined as the priority of place, or superiority in rank, in the conventional system of arrangement under which the more eminent and dignified orders of a community are classified on occasion of public ceremony and in the intercourse of private life.

Public functions of some form or another occur with more or less frequency in every state, and those who serve and represent the people in official capacities are necessarily the principal, often the only, participants. An ordinary sense of decency, not to speak of dignity or that wholesome sense of national pride which exists in all races, demands that such functions be orderly, and that the monopoly of places of honour be placed beyond the accomplishment of the assuming upstart and unworthy elements to the exclusion of those entrusted by the nation with the administration of its affairs and the guardianship of its interests and honour, and thus, in a very special sense, representing it.

It is not alone in countries where monarchical systems of government prevail that precedence is a subject of official regulation, republics finding it indispensable that provision be made for checking the tendency of ambitious and often selfish and unpatriotic individuals and elements to monopolize the highest distinctions and honours and ignore the claims of the devoted and trusted officers and servants of the nation—its recognized official representatives. The famous "protocol" of the French Republic is a case in point.

Throughout the British Empire or Commonwealth of Nations, the "Tables" or "Scales" of Precedence emanate from the Crown, and the issued under authority of the Sovereign. The Crown is "the fountain of honour," and it is its undoubted prerogative to confer on any of its subjects, in any part of its dominions, such titles and distinctions and such rank and place "as to it may seem meet and convenient." Its discretion is limited in those cases only wherein it has been submitted to restraint by Act of Parliament.

There is not, even in the Mother Country, any complete and comprehensive code whereby the scheme of social gradation has been defined and settled, once and for all, on a permanent foundation. The principles and rules at present controlling it have been formulated at different periods and have been derived from various sources.

In the old time, questions of precedence came in the ordinary course of things within the jurisdiction of the Courts of Chivalry in which figured such picturesque officials as lord high constables, earl marshals, kings of arms, heralds, pursuivants, etc. Points of unusual moment were referred to and decided by the sovereign in person, the privy council, or parliament.

Although there were "estates" titles and orders of various degrees in England from earliest historical times the oldest English table of precedence in existence is the "Order of All Estates of Nobles and Gentry" prepared for the coronation of Henry IV in 1399.

In the thirty-first year of King Henry VIII, Parliament, by statutory enactment, took cognizance of Precedence. It then passed the "Act for Placing the Lords," which, although it concerned directly only the Great Officers of States, and referred but incidentally to the places of the Nobility, has since considered the chief authority for the marshalling of dignities.

This Act was originated, it is important to remember, by the desire of the King, and it is declared, as a preliminary, that "although it appertained altogether to the Royal Prerogative to give such honour, reputation, and placing to his Councillors and others his subjects as should be seeming to the King's most excellent wisdom, the King was nevertheless pleased and contented for an order to be had and taken in his Most High Court of Parliament for the placing of the Great Officers and Lords."

The Statute of Henry VIII was in the nature of a declaratory Act, confirming the ancient and pre-existing Law of Precedence, and, in confirmation of this, it is a matter of historical fact that he advice of Garter King of Arms was taken before the bill was brought in. This Act of King Henry VIII's parliament still remains the only legislative measure in which it has been attempted to deal directly and systematically with any large and important section of the English scale or Table of Precedence. (There are separae tables for Scotland, Ireland, Wales, each Dominion, India and the Crown Colonies.)

Where no act of Parliament applies, precedence is determined by the will of the Sovereign or by what is accepted as ancient "usage and established custom."

Lists that show practice and custom in matters of precedence, such as are seen in the published accounts of assemblies of the estates of the realm such as at solemnities—Coronations, funerals, and the like, have been invoked in the preparation of the various Tables of precedence at present in force throughout the Empire.

Strict observance of these lists is insisted upon, for the principle underlying the maintenance of these lists is the protection of established right; and the least interference, unless made by Royal or Parliamentary authority, would be destructive of the right of some one entitled to rank on the scale, and not unlikely to dishonour the State in the person of a recognized representative.

It is Men's rank that confers precedence and regulates State Ceremonials. At the King's Courts, where husbands and wives pass His Majesty together, the precedence of the husbands is that which is regarded.

The wives and children of great officers of State and of all of those who derive their places on the scale from official rank, have no consequent precedence.

Foreign Titles of Nobility borne by British subjects afford their holders no precedence whatever in the Mother Country or elsewhere in the Empire, and strictly speaking, a Royal License should be obtained for their use.

Persons entitled to precedence in the United Kingdom, in Foreign Countries, or in any particular Dominion or Colony, are not entitled, as of a right, to the same precedence elsewhere; but in the absence of any special Instruction from the King, the precedence of such persons in the Overseas Dominions and Colonies of the British Commonwealth is determined by the King's Representative (the Governor-General or Governor).
